Meredith,

Thanks for facilitating the call. It was definitely not easy but you did a fine job of responding to the questions raised. I and my team are committed to doing everything possible to ensure adoption of the Plan. To that end, we are having ongoing discussions here at CARB about potential additional actions we can take, consistent with direction we received from our Board. Thanks for the offer of a followup call – I don't see a need for that right now.

Thanks,
Michael

Michael/Sheraz,
I'm glad you were on the phone – that was a tough call. Let me know if you want to go over any information.
